The report that Governor Throckmorton oposes to call a special session of the Legislature.
Judge Daval, United States Judge of the Western District of Texas, has delivered a stirring charge to the grand jury; he quotes at great length from the Constitution and amnesty proclamation. He says there is reason to believe some persons have violated the conditions on which they of tained amnesty; they should be visited with the punishment the judany deserves. The man who avails himself of esserves. deserves. The man who avails himself of the generosity of the Government to cl Tup Late H. Clay Davis.—The San Autonia Herald pays a beautiful tribute to the late Carol H. Clay the late General II. Clay Davis, the distinguished pioneer and Texas frontiersman, whose melancholy death, caused by New Overland Train-Kansas the accidental discharge of his gun while hunting, we mentioned some two weeks ago. The Herald says: General Davis migrated to Texas at an early day, and by his courage and energy founded Rio Grande City, or Rancho Davis, as it was usually called. He was a Kenthekian by birth, and about fiftytwo years of age. He perhaps had more warm personal friends than any American who ever lived upon the Ric Grande. His house and pocket were free to all. But for his social habits, and prodion for an amendment to the State Con- igal generosity, he might have amassed an immeuse fortune. He blended in an eminent degree all that ennobles manbrave, hospitable and generous. He leaves a devoted wife and a large family of children to mourn his less. We believe that he left ample means to support them comtortibly.
